

- A - The total width of the timber structure. The posts finish 145mm wide
- B - The total depth from the house wall to the front of the timber structure
- C - The side height. Normally around the same level height as the door frame
- D - The total timber structure height excluding dwarf walls
- E - Standard roof pitch is 35 degrees however this can be altered to suit